Perspective:

We Serve Together

As God's family, we must commit to serving each other and the rest of the world. One of the times Jesus modeled serving for us was when He provided lunch for a hungry crowd. Just like the boy who shared his lunch and the disciples who served, God can use our small gifts and talents to meet people's needs and ultimately lead them to Jesus.

Jesus Calls Us to Serve Others Read John 6:1-6.

When we put our trust in God, what we have is always enough. This builds our faith and increases our impact on those around us.

Jesus Calls Us to Serve with Others Read John 6:8-11.

Being willing to give what we have to help others can lead to some amazing things.

Our Service Points Others to Jesus Read John 6:12-15.

As we read about events like this in the Bible, we know we can expect great things from Jesus. We can be sure that serving Him by helping others is valuable. Every act of service done in Jesus' name leaves nothing wasted. And so many times, serving others in our church and community helps people see how good God is. They'll know He loves them and wants to help them because we love and help them in His name.
