The Bible reveals who God is, who we are, and how together we can have relationship.

Ultimately, it's in the person of Jesus that we see the Father most clearly. But the Father also chose to reveal who He is throughout His Word. The fullest picture of our Father comes from the array of His interactions with men and women, through which He chose to explain himself to us. We would like to have answers to so many questions about this awesome God of creation.

How can I know He's the one true God?

Bible Study at Bob & Mary's house each Thursday
11:30A.M.– 1:00P.M.

"Forget the former things...I am doing a new thing!" Isaiah 43:18-19"

Isaiah 55:8 NKJV - “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, Nor are your ways My ways,” says the Lord.”

Why are knockoffs and counterfeits so much less valuable than the real thing? Food packaging boasts “real” ingredients, and clothing manufacturers claim “genuine” materials.

1. Watch Out for Idols. (Daniel 3:1–6)

Aside from other religions, what are some things that people give a higher priority in their life than God?

How do you determine if someone or something is pulling your devotion away from God?

2. Idols Compete with the One True God. (Daniel 3:7–15)

How can a person’s public devotion to God influence those who are watching?

3. Rejecting Idols. (Daniel 3:16–23)

How can a deep knowledge of the one true God keep believers from being deceived into worshipping idols?

Some idols in our lives can be less obvious, like money, achievement, relationships, etc. What does “absolute refusal” of these idols look like?

What are some “fires” that believers are sometimes thrown into when they stand for their faith?

4. Idols Cannot Compare with the One True God. (Daniel 3:24–30)

Reflect on God Is the One True God: God did not spare Shadrach, Meshach, or Abednego from the trial.

He went through it with them!

Matthew 28:20; Isaiah 43:2
