God is in Control

Prayer during lunch time 11 a.m.- 1 p.m. in the

What types of behavior indicates someone might be a "control freak"?

The truth is we all want to be in control. The feeling of being in control gives us confidence and strength. When we're not in control, our mind can be filled with anxiety and fear. What can we do about our need for control? We can trust God—His plans and purposes are good. This doesn't mean life will always go our way. But it does mean that in every struggle we face, our lives are in the hands of a present, powerful, and faithful God.

Bible Study at Bob & Mary's house each Thursday 11:30A.M.– 1:00P.M.

"Forget the former things...I am doing a new thing!" Isaiah 43:18-19"

Isaiah 55:8 NKJV - “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, Nor are your ways My ways,” says the Lord.”

How is God in control?

1. God Directs Us. (Jeremiah 18:1–3)

In your life, what has God used to direct and guide you?

Why might God want us to obey and trust Him before He reveals what He wants to show us?

2. God Molds Us. (Jeremiah 18:4–6)

How does this metaphor of being formed as pottery in God’s hand help you better understand your relationship with Him?

How has God brought you to a place of “starting over” at different times in your life? What has been painful about those times? What has been helpful?

3. God Responds to Us. (Jeremiah 18:7–10)

It may not seem pleasant to think of God’s punishment following our disobedience. But if we view this as parents would, why might punishment be important to our growth?

Can you describe a time when God responded to your repentance or obedience by rescuing you from certain trouble or destruction?

4. God Invites Us In. (Jeremiah 18:11)

What are some things—useless, worthless, or even good—you’ve turned away from as you’ve grown in your relationship with God?

What role does God’s merciful invitation of forgiveness play in motivating us to serve Him?

Let’s reflect on God Is in Control: He allowed His “vessel” to be broken on the cross, so we could be forgiven.
